Committee Charge

The Faculty Code of University Government states that:

Section 4-5. Advisory Committee.

(a) The Advisory Committee consists of nine elected members, the chair of the faculty, the secretary of the faculty, and the chair of the Committee on Appointments, Promotions, and Tenure.

(b) The committee is advisory to the chancellor in any matter deemed important by the chancellor or the committee, and particularly with respect to:

1. proposed amendments to the trustee policies and procedures governing academic tenure;
2. review of school and departmental statements of criteria for appointment, promotion, and tenure;
3. academic program planning and assessment;
4. appointment of vice chancellors, deans, and other senior administrators;
5. recommendations for corrective action
 1. pursuant to a report of the Faculty Hearings Committee with respect to a decision not to reappoint a probationary-term faculty member, or
 2. pursuant to a report of the Faculty Grievance Committee with respect to a decision not to promote to a higher rank a person holding permanent tenure at the rank of associate professor or assistant professor; and
6. appointment and renewal of appointment of the faculty marshal and appointment and review of the faculty athletics representative. [Added April 24, 2004, to reflect adoption of [§ 3-3 and 3-4.]

No faculty member may serve simultaneously as an elected member of the Advisory Committee and the Faculty Executive Committee; the Committee on Appointments, Promotions, and Tenure; the Faculty Hearings Committee; or the Faculty Grievance Committee.

(c) The secretary of the faculty serves as secretary of the committee.

(d) The committee holds regular meetings once each month, at such time and place as fixed by the committee and the chancellor. The presiding officer is the chancellor, or, in his or her absence, the chair of the Advisory Committee. Special meetings may be called by the chancellor or the chair of the Advisory Committee. Notice of a special meeting called by the chair is given to the chancellor. Whoever calls the special meeting presides.

Report on Activities

The Committee met monthly with the Chancellor. The main topics discussed since the last report to the Faculty Council included the Chancellor's decision to resign [one entire session was devoted to an attempt to convince the Chancellor to change his mind – with the same result as other similar attempts]; the NCAA football investigation; reorganization of the Academic Support Program for Student Athletes; relationship between Academic Advising and the Academic Support Program for Student Athletes; general issues of oversight of academic programs; the Chancellor's commission of a review of academic irregularities by a committee chaired by former Governor Jim Martin; the report presented by this committee; and the appointment of Hunter Rawlings, President of the Association of American Universities, to examine the relationship between academics and athletics at UNC. Other topics included rankings by US News and World Reports; UNC's steep increase in external research funding; UNC's amicus brief to the Supreme Court in support of diversity in admissions; budget outlook; tuition increase proposal; salary raise processes; and faculty and administrative personnel updates (e.g., searches, retirements, departures, replacements, new appointments, corrective action recommendations). Finally, we discussed issues related to the Strategic Plan for the entire UNC system that is being elaborated by a state-wide advisory committee.

No recommendations for specific action by Faculty Council are proposed.

Respectfully submitted,

Evelyne Huber, Chair
